

Washington, DC – U.S. Congresswoman Gwen Moore (D-Milwaukee) has been selected to serve on the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee, which recommends committee assignments for Democratic Members of Congress as well as leadership spots on House committees.

Congresswoman Moore said, “I’m honored to be selected to serve in this capacity. I look forward to working with my colleagues from across the country to help Democrats in Congress achieve our policy goals.”

Moore, the only Wisconsinite currently serving on the committee, is one of 13 appointed members. The committee, chaired by Representatives George Miller (D-Calif.) and Rosa DeLauro (D-Conn.), also has 12 regionally selected members. Additionally, several standing committee chairs serve on the Steering and Policy Committee.
